ALBANIA UNDER ENVER HOXHA

Director(s): Robert QAFZEZI

Writer(s): Robert QAFZEZI

An illustrated history of Albania, from its creation at the turn of the century to Sali Berisham's election in 1992, first democratically elected president. A filmic recollection of great historical events and the larger-than-life individuals that participated in them (the Balkan wars, King Zog, Enver Hoxha).

Relying on hitherto unseen archival footage, this historical exposé of a region plagued by a chronic instability documents that the fragile peace that followed the fall of communism had always been threatened... and was but an illusion.

Categorie(s): History & Current Affairs, Collections - Series
Tag(s): History, Politics

Producer(s): POINT DU JOUR
Coproducer(s): RTBF - Télévision belge, LA SEPT - ARTE
Length: 1x52 / Format: One-off
Original version: French
Versions available: English / International
Nationality: France, 1997
Rights:

Support(s): SD - Beta SP
http://www.pointdujour-international.com/catalogueFiche.php?idFiche=18073&lang=en