15. ME AND MY CLOWN

Writer(s): Sandrine HERMAN

A clown isn't just there to make us laugh. When Sandrine met her own clown, whom she named Cheminalla, it changed her relationship to the world and to others, and offered her a sense of freedom.

So, Sandrine takes us to immerse ourselves in a workshop where deaf participants endeavour to find their own clown. She will share with us their private thoughts, their feelings about this personal exploration and the new horizons it offers. Let's discover the clown that lies dormant in all of us!
