

ALGERIA: THE FORTRESS OASIS

Director(s): Veronique TAVEAU

Hassi Messaoud, "the fortress oasis", is a commuter town of 45,000 inhabitants. Guards patrol its streets day and night, for Hassi Messaoud is home to Sonacatra's Italian, Spanish, British, American and German employees. And Sonacatra runs the 2,000 sq. kilometre oilfield, which is Algeria's principal source of wealth. Security is a boom industry in war-torn Algeria, but this film shines a light on an aspect of the country that rarely makes the news.
