

NEXT STOP: AMSTERDAM (season 2)

Director(s): Nicolas FRANK

Writer(s): Nicolas FRANK

1. City of Water
Water is essential in the lives of the people of Amsterdam. It's the founding element, the art of living. Canals are a way of life - it certainly is for famous singer Ellen Van Tan who lives on a canal boat.
2. Clichés galore !
Holland is not just « the other cheese country ». It's also famous for its tulips, its windmills or the wooden clogs. These clichés are part of the city's charm. Emmanuelle also tackles the perilous complexities of bicycling through the streets of Amsterdam...
3. Eco-City
Amsterdam is often quoted as a pioneer of eco consciousness. We'll tour the city in an electric taxi and discover the diversity of ecosystems in some districts right in the centre ...
4. A Certain Idea of Freedom
AmsterdaM? metropolis with the greatest number of nationalities. For centuries, it has welcomed refugees from the 4 corners of the globe. We explore the city of tolerance or visit the first gay and lesbian bar in history...
5. Echoes of the Seventies
Echoes of the free spirit mentality of the sixties still float in the streets. We'll drop in to one of the famous coffee shops in town before cbecking out the village of Ruigoord, sanctuary of the hippie culture...
