

MEANING OF RAP (The)

Writer(s): Sandrine HERMAN

To better understand her son's passion for rap, Sandrine Herman, who is deaf, wonders about this culture that does not always have a good image.

In order to overcome her own preconceived ideas, she meets with two artists: Laurent, aka Laurent Erremsi, a rapper whose parents are deaf and Laëty who translates his words into sign language.

Observing them as they produce a video clip production, in concert, during their daily life and get-togethers with other rappers offers Sandrine an immersion into their world where signs, words, rhythms and emotions mix happily.
