

CANCER, BREAKING A TABOO

Director(s): Elodie BONNES

Writer(s): Elodie BONNES

Ariane Cousin lives in Toulouse with her two children. In 2017, she is diagnosed with breast cancer.

But Ariane is a combative and dynamic person and she wants to meet other deaf women who share this painful experience, to exchange with them in her own language. But discussion groups or support structures for cancer patients available in sign language, are still too rare.
Nevertheless, it is vital to overcome the taboo that still surrounds cancer.
