

S2 - 06. AUSTRALIA, HISTORY OF LIFE ON EARTH

Director(s): Pierre-François DIDEK

Writer(s): Serge BRUNIER, Bruno BUCHER

Next stop in our globe-trotting journey: Australia, the oldest continent in the world. Serge Brunier has come to meet scientists whose domain is the appearance of life on Earth. In their company, he introduces us to the most primitive forms of life known to us and tries to trace back our family tree to find an ancestor that is common to man, animals and plants ... Because, let's not forget, in the entire Universe, planet Earth is - as far as we know - the only planet that has known Life...
