

INTERPRETERS IN THE MAKING

Director(s): Alexandra MASBOU

Writer(s): Alexandra MASBOU

The profession of sign language interpreter attracts more and more students. Today in France, five university courses offer LSF(French sign language)/French masters in interpretation.

We'll be sharing the daily life of students of the School of Interpreters and Translators (ESIT) and discover this particular job and its challenges: the different learning techniques, the skills to acquire, but also ethical questions ...
What are the motivations and aspirations of these language interpreters in the making?
