

AUDREY AND THE IMPOSSIBLE DREAM

Writer(s): Sandrine HERMAN

After obtaining her driving license, Audrey becomes the first deaf woman truck driver in France.

Thanks to her determination and strength of character, this chit of a girl has been able to assert herself in this predominantly masculine and hearing environment. When she's not driving, Audrey sits in the saddle and goes riding, her first passion. What obstacles did she have to overcome to achieve her goals?
Sandrine Herman takes us to discover Audrey's world full of contrasts, between mechanics and wide open spaces.
