

23. WOMEN'S BATTLES

Director(s): Sophie TRINIAC

Writer(s): Sophie TRINIAC

Although women begin to speak out, most female victims of violence still find it difficult to talk, especially about domestic violence.

It's a difficult step to take. And filing a complaint against your attacker is even harder. However, it is essential in order to protect oneself. The testimonies of Johanna, Yvelise and Christine help us understand what needs to change to facilitate this process so that women feel that their words are being heard, listened to and accepted. So that for the deaf, communication will no longer be an obstacle in a situation that is already a particularly painful ordeal...
