

25. BABIES, SIGNS AND KINDNESS

Director(s): Jean-Philippe URBACH

Writer(s): Jean-Philippe URBACH

In recent years, the use of sign language to communicate with babies has been spreading rapidly in nurseries. It is thought that signing with your baby strengthens the bond and their feeling of self-confidence.

Sign language is thus becoming a real tool for hearing people and could present an incredible opportunity to bring together the two cultures, deaf and hearing. But the question is: are deaf people in tune with this movement? Or are they simply spectators of this little educational revolution based on their language?
