

20. LIBERTY, EQUALITY, NON-BINARITY

Director(s): Sophie TRINIAC

Writer(s): Sophie TRINIAC

We live in a so-called binary society. We learn that people are either men or women. What happens when we can't check off "Female" or "Male" on our identification papers?
How does it feel when our gender identity is not or little represented in society? What if we weren't "he" or "she" but "they"?
We meet a young deaf boy, Ezra, a non-binary assigned female at birth. Lost under society-related injunctions, it was several years before he / she could assert his / her own identity.
We will listen to Ezra and share precious moments of her/his/their daily life.
