

LYNN & PARIS

Director(s): Arno BITSCHY

Writer(s): Arno BITSCHY

A German homeless couple winds up in the city of Lyon, France. Their van has broken down and Covid-19 has sent half of the planet into lockdown. Lynn and Paris are madly in love, want a child and dream of a fantastical future in this deserted city that now belongs to them.
During their daily life of idleness in a world on the edge of collapse, cracks appear in their bubble of love: Paris's health is fragile, the demons of his past still haunt him and they face a great many obstacles if they want to settle somewhere more permanent.
This film is a love story, which its director explores...in the realms between dream and reality.
